VOL. XXV.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY. THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1903.

NO. 2

GOING TO MOVE.

I have rented a store-house in Flemingsburg, Ky., and will open up business there on August 1st, 1903. From now until I move I will sell anything in my large stock at cost. I would rather have the cost in cash than move them. I can replace them with less trouble and you get the benefit of goods without profit. I have a nice stock of new, fresh goods, and if you need Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats or Notions I can save you at least 25 per cent., sometimes more. Don't miss this chance. JAMES GILLON.

57 When you have a new, fine, or well-made carriage, call at my office by phone ring up.

The public school per capita for this year is $2.60.

Sett Botts sold twenty-seven last to Mr. F. P. Hendrix & Co.

T. S. Shrouds sold to W. J. Felt 100 bbls. of corn to be delivered at Salt Lick on July 25.

Miss Mattie Woodson Barnes, west of town, entertained the Junior social Tuesday night.

We must have our money, so please call.

Miss Eva McElroy—Sister of our dear son of school at Sevierville, the house the fourth Monday in July.

The Owingsville baseball club went to Mt. Sterling Tuesday and played the Mt. S. team, losing by 13 to 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Catterson are in the gas works, their home having been burgled and a considerable sum Saturday evening.

J. D. J. Power and tenants, of Burbridge's branch, sold 9,500 lbs. of tobacco to Snedger Bros., of Wm. H. Daugherty, Sunday.

The weather is breezy and de-lightfully cool. More dampness is all that is needed to make it ideal summer weather.

Although the streets have been swept and the dust carried off, frequently every little wind finds plenty of dust yet.

There is to be a reunion of the Confederate soldiers of Gen. John Morgan's command at the "Rock Hill" camp ground Aug. 15-20.

Local—small brown rat terrier long tail and legs; ten dollars for his return.

W. W. Barnes, Salt Lick, Ky.

The best word of wheat reported in a year is a little over 30 bushels per acre from three measured acres at A. G. V. Cook's farm, on Flat Creek.

Local—our picnic on Salt Lick July 11 lady's brown book containing some money, gloves, hats, etc. Get ready for our local picnic.

New Farm—As successors to Oscar Palmer we are prepared to do everything in the line of blacksmith and carriage repair work, having first-class sums and painters. Your patronage is solicited.

SELL & HOMES.

Funeral Furnishings, Prompt equipment and modern services; also dealer in first-class furniture of all descriptions. Call and see before buying elsewhere.

M. D. FARIS, Owingsville, Ky.

Funeral, Funeral Director and Embalmer.

Local—ladies gold-blond watch with diamond initials "E. J. G." on case, between Forge Hill and Grange City. $2 reward to finder.

Tom Hart, Hillsboro, Ky.

POVAT BILLS—George Steele brought in a bunch of seed bills and a few other pieces of his patch. Formerly common, they are so rare now-a-days that only one can name them at a sight.

Miss Louis Queenberry, having graduated at the Commercial College of Kentucky University, returned to her home on White Oak Monday and was buried Tuesday at the Truett graveyard. The child took the road the same night and was found dead. The parents are much sympathized with.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Magistrate.

We are authorized to announce Thomas J. Jones as a candidate to represent the people of the Owingsville district, No. 6, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ALLIE YOUNG is reconciled to the Louisville catastrophe. Like the man's wife to dying—he just had to be.

BILL O'BRIAN had a short speech showed he was still the biggest Republican in Kentucky by all odds, including Debo.

ROCKSVILLE played a part in Pierpont Morgan's stock preserves last week. Morgan wouldn't 'a' thought it of Rock.

OWENS SAM is silver than pre-venting that Jewish petition to Russia than a boy is about delivering his first love letter to his inamorata.

JOHN HOBBS got the nomination on the first ballot. Individually he seems to be all right, but he trains with the Sapp element, which is all wrong.

FOX continues to unmask legislative corruption in St. Louis and the Missouri legislature. He will get himself disliked by the boudoirs if he isn't careful.

MARY W. C. OWENS, Chairman, and Judge W. M. Becker, nominee for Attorney General, figured conspicuously in the Republican State convention. They are ex-Democrats.

JOHN BULL thinks maybe he has to give up his seat in the Senate that Uncle Sam keeps in Anna. When two notorious land-grabbers like these fall out look out for 'em.

MO law is growing in prevalence if not toward the country. It is not a good men, but the legislature's way of not being properly used is largely responsible for it.

BATON has become such a back number that he can only hope to attract attention by abusing Cleveland and other Democrats who stood for Cleveland, which is synonymous with Democracy.

Mrs. DOA BROWN, recently widowed, who was noted as the wife of Dr. C. C. C. M. Clay, is so averse to newspaper notoriety that she threatened a reporter with a pistol and chased him with a broom. Hurrah for Dora!

JOHN B. BICKERS, of Winsted, and Congressman W. G. Thompson, recently Democratic vice-presidents at the State Republican convention. They are bigger than the men who are running the Democratic party now.

THE now celebrated Jett-Whitlock trial will begin at Cincinnati next Monday. The whole United States will watch its progress with abiding interest. The public is not to be allowed to have the guilty will receive the punishment they deserve.

THE friends at Washington is watching important Post office Department criminal right along. Uncle Sam has been paying dearly for postal appliances bought by the Post Office. With rapidly increased telegraphical equipment the Post Office will be able to do a great deal.

THE now celebrated Jett-Whitlock trial will begin at Cincinnati next Monday. The whole United States will watch its progress with abiding interest. The public is not to be allowed to have the guilty will receive the punishment they deserve.

THE young widow of Aldrich, of Rhode Island, for Roosevelt's running mate in 1904. Platt is deep, so there is no telling what he has against Aldrich, who would be a smash in the powerful body in which he is the chief member at present.

THE makers of a certain cash register sold Uncle Sam 250 machines at $150 each because he was their Uncle, whereas they sold them in the open market at $125 each. Uncle Sam has been buying them for the winter supply.

Uncle Sam's clerks needed the take-out.

THE colored ministers of Evansville, Ind., adopted a sensible course in passing resolutions condemning the shrillings and idle negroes who have been sent to the community to deal with them. White people everywhere respect worthy colored people, but they are growing in numbers. With scarcely a criminal element, who can be, on the community. There is no future for the negro except to be a slave to him by a life of laziness and insipidity.

THE master he learns that he can secure a place for himself only by destroying it the better it will be for him. It is a fact that the negroes that there are vicious and shiftless white people too; the latter are not regarded by the good white people. As for the negroes that he has no real identity, as long as human nature remains what it is, and it has never changed in that respects reported history began.

CAPT. B. J. EWEN made his will and set his affairs in order like a man who is about to meet his last journey before he went to attend the special court at Jackson as a witness this week. Old Kentucky will lead to do the White Sulphur school.

Mrs. Mollie Gray is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Will.

The fever has subsided and the pulse of the people beat more regularly.

Mrs. Mary Ray Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting Miss Jessie Clayton this week.

AS a couple of gentlemen were driving out of Salt Lick they were passing on the fence. Just as they were passing they began firing their pistols in the air. The horse took fright and ran away, amid the shouts and laughter of the crowd.

THE Herald talks like it is going to have a thorough investigation of those matters and says the jury will not do any thing but have another choice. That is the right sort of talk and if it bears proper fruit the State will rejoice.
